The JOURNAL of SOCIAL FORCES

Published Bi-Monthly at the University of North Carolina

CHAPEL HILL

Readers will be glad to learn of the cordial response which has followed the announcement of the publication of The JOURNAL of SOCIAL FORCES beginning November, 1922. Its advance commendations and charter subscribers are representative of a wide area, a marked interest, and a distinguished service. In addition to the confidence and enthusiasm of those in North Carolina and other Southern states, expressions from leading educators, sociologists and social workers outside the South give assurance of adequate coöperation and substantial results.

Helpful Books for Teachers and Pupils

You have widely used, in the past, many of the Palmer Company books; we remind you therefore of the following New Books (just published)

DIACRITICAL MARKS. By N. E. Hamilton. An easy method for teaching a very important and much neglected subject. Diacritical marks appear in all standard dictionaries and every person is supposed to be familiar with them; but heretofore few attempts have been made to teach them in the schools. Without a knowledge of them many mistakes in pronunciation will be made. This little book will fill a long felt want in Grade and High Schools. Price 20 cents.

EDUCATION AND THE ARMY. By Captain Elbridge Colby, U. S. Army. The Author before entering the service was an Instructor in Columbia University and the University of Minnesota. His book tells what the Army is doing and has done in its schools. It has been a great work. You should know about it. His book is controversial and is sure to interest educators. Price $1.00.

INFORMAL ORAL COMPOSITION. By George Pickett Wilson, (University of Wisconsin). This is something new upon this important subject. We speak a hundred times where we write but once. Yet there are a hundred books about how to write our thoughts, to one about how to effectively speak them. Professor Wilson's book shows young men and women how to gain this coveted power to express themselves, on any subject and under all kinds of circumstances. Think what this will mean to one applying for a job, or in selling goods, or in a thousand other situations in life. A fine text for adoption in High School and Colleges. Price, $1.20.

Pupils Are Critical

and want motion pictures of professional quality. Over half of the theaters of the country use the Powers 6-B motion picture machine pictured here. More schools use it than any other. Other cheap and expensive machines break down in the hands of pupil operators; Powers keeps going. Such is the experience of cities like Richmond and Newark and others. You should profit by the experience of others.

Ashley's Practice of Citizenship In Home, School, Business, and Community

Beginning with the home and the school—the social groups in which the student finds himself—this book treats the civic rights and duties of members of these groups as an introduction to the study of citizenship in larger social groups.

Thus the student learns civic relationships typical of those which every adult citizen possesses, and consciously puts into practice the knowledge he has gained.

The questions at the end of each chapter form the most important part of the book. In fact they may be used as the basis of the course. They assist in localizing the material presented in the various chapters. The majority of them may be considered as problems and studied from the problem angle. By studying them in groups, a fairly large number may be made the basis of projects.

A practical introductory course in citizenship for the ninth school year.
